Ride Bureau Planned For Soph Strut

Coordinating Office For Students Having No Transportation at Dance

With only a week to go, Vernon Rees and his sales committee set to work in earnest on selling the bids to the Soph Strut. Frank Muldoon, Soph prexy, has arranged to have a "ride bureau." This will be a coordinating office where those having extra room in their cars and those without means of transportation may leave their names. You are asked to cooperate in this. A window of the financial office will be used for this all next week.

Meanwhile additional plans for the decoration have been announced by Ann Lundquist, chairman of the dance committee. Indirect lighting in red and blue is to be used exclusively, no lights will be directly visible. Orange and black will carry out a conservative Hallowe'en motif.

To quench the thirsty a soft drink bar has been installed. Here sandwiches and soft drinks will be available.

Five maps are to be placed at strategic points about the college in order that everyone may become familiar with the route. Further directions in the form of arrows and road signs will be erected from San Carlos to the Club itself.

World Today Features Ely

"Rhythmic vigor: heritage in dance," will be the next topic to be discussed in the "World Today" series of lectures being presented by State's faculty members. In accordance with a special arrangement, Miss Eleanor E. Ely, instructor of physical education, will deliver the lecture instead of Mrs. Florence H. Stephenson, assistant professor of physical education, who was originally scheduled to speak.

Miss Bernice Van Gelder, instructor of physical education, now in New York studying modern dance under Martha Graham and Hanya Holm, concert dancers and teachers, wrote the lecture material. Miss Graham, according to Mrs. Stephenson, is the most outstanding exponent of modern dancing in the United States.

Miss Ely has been a pupil of Miss Van Gelder for several years. She is at present "one of the most prominent young members" of the Northern California Dance Council. At the lecture, she will answer the following questions:

1. What are the different categories of dance material in the history of American life?
2. What have been the contributions of dance to the cultural life of America?
3. Does the dance as it exists in America today have any distinctive cultural significance differing from the influence in other parts of the world?
4. What are some of the likely good effects of this dance development on the future cultural life of America?
5. How is the dance itself likely to be influenced by social changes?

MUSIC FEDERATION PARTY

The Music Federation will hold its first social function Friday, October 30, in Annex 10b at 8 o'clock. According to Gus Smith, president, a slight charge of ten cents will be assessed to pay for the affair.

Nov. 3 Set As VOTING DATE By Ex. Board

High Seniors Must Have Pix Taken Today Says Barry Names Jinx Committee

By LEE SCARLETT

Members of San Francisco State student body will settle two current issues at a special election booked for Monday and Tuesday, November 2 and 3.

The first item on the ballot will be the compulsory Franciscan fee of 75c a semester or a dollar and a half for student entering in the spring.

"This proposition, if passed, would assure production of a good annual each year, as those in charge would thus be enabled to make extensive plans in advance," said Bill Rose, prominent State journalist.

The second proposition provides for nomination of class officers at a quorum meeting, in this manner doing away with petitions, which sometimes deprive lesser known students of an opportunity to run for office.

The Executive Board stated that the elections would last two days because the voting machines would be in use for president balloting.

Xmas Program

Dorothy Jean White was appointed chairman of the coming Christmas Jinx. Named on her committee are: Darryl Hopkins, Bill Ferem and Virginia Kyriaze, who are working to provide all Staters with some excellent Christmas entertainment.

Pictures Taken

As a result of arrangements made by Bob Barry, Franciscan editor, High Seniors may have their pictures taken in the student body office today any time before 3 o'clock.

Johnny Goodwin, president of this group, recently issued the following message to all High Seniors: "Due to the smallness of the class, it is imperative that every member have his picture in the Franciscan. Remember, gang, it's your last annual!"

ENGLISH MAJORS MEET SOCIALLY

On Wednesday afternoon, between four and five o'clock, all students whose major or minor subject is English, will be entertained at a party to be given in the Activities Room, according to word from Miss Mary L. Kleinecke.

Plans for the affair are virtually complete. The objective, as stated by Miss Kleinecke, is to foster a more united feeling among those students taking majors or minors in English, as well as to make them acquainted with the members of the department.

Student hosts and hostesses will be Sonia Selig, Beatrice McDermott, Jean Coplestone, Jack Werchick, and William Smith.

"ON TO CHICO" RALLY FEATURES VAUDEVILLE

Using an "On to Chico" theme, a send-off rally for the football team was held yesterday. Under the direction of Bud Decker, yell-leader, and with the cooperation of the rally committee, a variety of acts would be a surprise to many audience.

The hit of the show were the "Three Vagabonds," stars of stage and screen, who stole the show with their harmonies on a jug, guitar and voice. The rally also marked the return of Jose Molinas and his Collegiate Rumba orchestra.

Clubs Gather Talent, Acts For Ball Cup

Race For Performers Grows As Date Nears For Chickens' Ball

Clubs and organizations on the campus have caught the competitive spirit in connection with the forthcoming A. P. G. Chicken's Ball, according to statements from heads of the college fraternity. That the nature of some of these acts would be a surprise to many of the students was assured by confidential reports from several of the organizations entered.

Ex Board Act

The Student Executive Board has promised a unique short act headed by Bill Ferem, Low Frosh president. It was also believed from reliable authority that the Music Federation would offer three acts from various departments of the organization. Secrecy surrounds the plans of Bib'n Tucker, Kappa Delta Tau, Open Road Club, A. M. S. and A. W. S.

Tickets for the affair are already in the hands of club presidents, committee members Bob Barry and Rose Marie Haas stated, and more can be had by direct application to them. Only tickets officially issued to club presidents will be counted in the ticket selling contest, it was emphasized by Chairman Bischoff.

Dinner For Event

The evening of November 4th just preceding the Ball will be marked by a Phi Lambda Chi dinner in the Co-op for the convenience of those who live across the bay and wish to attend the affair. In this gathering there will also be a special section set aside for the Gater staff, it was announced by Jean Coplestone.

Sponsors for the Chicken's Ball, the main purpose of which is to raise funds for the annual John Henry Nash Scholarship, are composed of many prominent San Franciscans, all of them friends of the famous printer. Mr. Albert Bender, Dr. George D. Lyman, Mrs. A. B. C. Dohrman, Mr. J. A. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Wilke and Mr. and Mrs. Milton S. Ray.

DR. KUNZ WILL LECTURE HERE

When International Relations Clubs of Northern California and Nevada meet at State on October 30 and 31, they will hear Dr. Josef L. Kunz, world authority on international law, in an address on the Present International Situation in Europe.

Dr. Kunz, who lectures on international law at the University of Toledo, holds a Rockefeller Research Fellowship on that subject.

STATE NIGHT TROUBLE SEEN

UNION SEEKS TO HALT STAGE SHOW

Junior Prom Crash-Proof

"Stupendous" Publicity To Be Opened After Strut

That the forthcoming Junior Prom at the St. Francis Hotel on "Big Game" night would be crash-proof was promised by members of the arrangements committee after a visit to the scene of the affair last Tuesday. At that time ways and means were discussed with the management of the hotel for preventing any unwarranted intrusions on the Prom.

Bids Soon

Howard Demeke, Junior president, made the statement during the week that the dance would be amply provided with committeemen to guard against crashing and intrusions of all sorts. He said also that it was realized that Staters who attend expect a well regulated and managed affair, and that the entire class was cooperating to bring this end about.

Rose Marie Haas and Shirlie Canning, co-chairmen of the bids committee, said that no definite word had been received from printers on the bids, but that the close of the week should see a decision made.

Pauline Quirk, vice-president, said that the social organization for the coming event was coming along nicely and that no slip-ups were expected.

Drive Opens

A big drive to put the affair over successfully was scheduled to begin immediately after the Soph Strut. Will Smith, publicity chairman, said, "We are definitely holding off in favor of the Soph Strut because it is a preceding State dance and deserves the wholehearted support of the student body. However, afterward we intend to make the school "Prom Conscious" in a big way. We'll plaster the college with posters until no one can say he doesn't know every fact about time, place and price of the Prom."

DR. BUTLER SPEAKS

"High and Low Frosh receiving cinch notices must see their counsellors at once," declared Dr. Butler, dean of lower division.

The state spends thousands of dollars yearly for counselling and the students take little advantage of the fact.

"Those not contacting their counsellors will be forcibly taken from classes," Dean Butler added.

Noon Dances Make Return

Block "S" Again Backs Midday Event in Gym

Today marks the return of the Friday noonday dances in the gym sponsored by the Block S Society. A five-piece orchestra will furnish the music for these weekly dances.

Kenneth McGrew, president of the Block S Society explained the reason for starting the dances late this semester was due to the Friday football rallies held the past few weeks. Today the dances start off again and will continue every Friday during the remainder of the semester.

Mike Driscoll, chairman of the dance, stated that the social success of the last semester's dances should continue this semester. He urges all new students, especially the freshmen, to be at the dance and meet the rest of the student body. All the old students are urged to come out and renew old friendships.

The admission price of 10c goes into the Block S funds and is used for buying blankets for the team and large banner seen at the games.

Trip Plans Now Complete

Developments have been fast and furious concerning the Santa Barbara excursion during the week-end of November 5-7.

Transportation and accommodation facilities have been completed. Students will leave San Francisco from Third and Townsend streets at 8:00 a. m. Friday morning, Nov. 6, on the Daylight Limited, which will make a non-stop flight to Santa Barbara, arriving at 4:40 p. m. Classes will be excused on Friday for those students contemplating making the trip and no loss of class credit will be incurred.

Communications have been exchanged with Santa Barbara State College and the train will be met at the station by a student delegation and will be escorted about the town until game time. Inasmuch as this is Santa Barbara's homecoming game, a dance will be held at the College following the game in honor of San Francisco State. A complete social calendar has been arranged, including a luncheon on Saturday and another social Saturday evening.

Sleeping accommodations are included in the round trip fare of $11.00. The Southern Pacific will leave Pullman sleepers at the Santa Barbara depot to accommodate the whole crowd. These cars will be picked up at 1:20 a. m. Sunday morning and the train will arrive back in San Francisco on Sunday at noon. The ticket, however, has a seven-day stay-over privilege and those wishing to stay over Saturday may catch the 10:40 Sunday morning train and arrive in San Francisco about 6:00 p. m.

A sign-up will be held daily in Mr. Nee's office from 11:00 until 1:00. Those wishing to go may sign up at this time and a $3.00 deposit is asked as a measure of good faith. The Southern Pacific R. R. has promised a real town hall trip and Vernon Ouellette, in charge of ticket sales, urges all those boys and girls wishing to go to sign up as soon as possible

Stage Hands Must Be Union Men Is Ruling of Local Labor Leaders

"State Night," newest enterprise of the Associated Students, has run into difficulties, Howard Demeke, chairman, said today. The affair, scheduled to be held at the Midtown Theatre as a benefit show for the Franciscan, has met opposition in union labor circles.

Labor leaders contend that if the school desires to stage such a vaudeville show, all of the stage hands and musicians must be union men. Inasmuch as the plan originally called for students doing the work, a change of plan will be necessary or the show cannot be staged.

"Our committee is working to find a solution to the problem," Demeke said, "and we hope to find some way to hold the show after all. Some concession might be given us because we are giving a benefit show and are not aiming for profit. A definite decision will be made Monday."

Failure to have this show will be a hard blow to the Franciscan, according to Editor Robert Barry, as considerable funds are yet needed to publish the book.

Should the show be given, original plans to secure both student and outside talent will be carried out. A definite percentage of the receipts will be allotted to the college, and immediately turned over to the Franciscan.

Concert At Noon Today

Today at 12 o'clock, G. Marston Haddock gives his concert "England's Song Heritage," in Annex B, Room 8. The ten cent admission price, according to Miss Eileen McCall of the music department, is very reasonable, considering the quality and cultural value of this concert. All students are invited to attend.

Haddock, Principal of the Leeds School of Music, London, and the School of Acting of north London, comes here on one of his many world tours. He is an authority on Old English Folk Songs and his presentation of this type of music is excellent.

A year ago Haddock gave a concert on the State College campus.

FRIDAY 13th LUCKY FOR THEATER GOERS — REVEALS ALL STAR CAST IN POST ROAD

State's own Charlotte Greenwood, in the person of Carola Beetz, will star in a two-act version of "Post Road," the original "Leaning on Letty" mystery comedy melodrama, at the Community Play House on Friday, the 13th of November.

Seats for the production will be reserved, the tickets to be sold at forty cents, and to go on sale the first of next week. Mrs. Jessie Casebolt, dramatic instructor of College Theatre, will direct the play.

"Post Road" will be presented by an entire State cast at Humboldt the week previous to the local showing. Funds from the student body will send the players to Humboldt, and will be returned to the student body treasury from the receipts taken in at the Community House.

Leading the cast is Miss Beetz as Emily; supporting roles are held by George Archambault as George; Virginia Gildae as Mae; Clem Zannini as Cartwright; Ruth Hutchinson as Celia; Bernard De Bischop as Bill; Leah Cheek as a Girl; Roy Laugesen as Spender; Frank Muldoon as Matt; Lee Armstrong as Virgil; Harry Post as Jay, and four other roles, a Nurse, Mrs. Cashler, Mrs. Canby and Jeeby.

In the very near future the members of the Associated Students will be asked to vote upon the proposition of a compulsory annual fee. To aid in the formation of an unbiased opinion on this question, we will turn this column or a portion of it over to the proponents and opponents of this measure.

We will be glad to receive any communications upon this subject. We will reserve the right to use our discretion as to publication. To reach us these communications can be placed in the Golden Gater mailbox in the front hall or in Box 837 in the Co-op or in the editor's box in 114.

Lidlifter Inc.

We call them Lidlifters. They are your means of airing any grief, praise or comment upon the affairs of the college. We feel that the Golden Gater is your paper. We want to hear from you. We want you to comment, to air that grief, or to give that praise. A note in the boxes mentioned above, addressed to Lidlifter Editor, will do the trick. Of course we cannot guarantee immediate publication. We will try our best, though.

Varsity Theater Again

We are awaiting comment upon the second Varsity Theater production. Originally started by the Golden Gater with Campus Reels, the Varsity Theater was taken under the sponsorship of the Associated Students. The first showing was far from successful but showed promise of being developed into a medium of entertainment and advertisement for the college.

The staff of the college picture theater has a hard task. We give them our wishes for a successful outcome to their venture.

Chico—Insult and Injury!

Somewhere on the sports page of this issue you will see a reference to a "crack" by the Chico State publicity man. It says something about picking a team that Chico is sure of beating. Something about prestige is added. This in the polite parlance of the sports world is adding insult to injury. Chico may hold the decision over the Golden Tide on past performances. Somehow we don't think that they have heard of the new spirit this year.

It might sound funny to talk of new spirit after the Gilmore-Miramonte defeat. But this team can get fighting mad as witnessed in the San Francisco Junior College game. Given a break and no 9.9 second dash men to contend against, the Golden Tide will surprise Coach Acker's Wildcats. In fact, if we may be so bold, we would say that there will be a drowned cat at Oroville tonight. A mythical cat, of course.

The International Convention

Scheduled for next Friday and Saturday, the International Clubs regional meeting will be held on the campus. We have had a glimpse of the preliminary program. We can say that the topics to be covered by the roundtable sessions are topics of particular interest, inasmuch as they have a particular bearing on the present day conditions. If it is possible, many of the students should try to attend the meetings as observers.

Educator Advocates New Ruling

Geneva, N. Y. — (ACP) — Dr. William Alfred Eddy, president of Hobart and William Smith Colleges, rocked the world of education when he announced a four-year course in responsible citizenship as a requirement for a bachelor's degree in his institutions.

Before an inauguration day audience of 2,000 persons, including representatives of more than 150 colleges and universities and the judiciary of New York State, President Eddy said:

"We believe that the worth of the state in the long run is the worth of the individuals composing it; that irresponsible citizens cannot hope to set up a responsible government; that dishonest individuals cannot expect honest public finance; that jingoistic and bellicose peoples cannot operate a pacific League of Nations; and that aloof, fastidious scholars will not turn into alumni impassioned for social justice.

"The theory that a liberal education will make a citizen responsible automatically is attractive but untrue. The truth is that a student is infected by the enthusiasms of his campus, whatever they may be. Football, science, literature, or art claim his interest his life long; but where Main street and the town hall are treated as beneath the scholar's contempt, the alumnus is, not unnaturally, equally prone to carry that contempt to the grave."

Declaring himself in favor of active promotion of athletics and every other form of activity on both campuses, Dr. Eddy said:

"I have been puzzled at the notion sometimes expressed that enthusiasm for football is hostile to the intellectual life, as though the lethargy of the classroom would disappear if lethargy could somehow be enforced in the gymnasium. I fail to see how exuberance in athletics, dramatics, or social life inhibits intellectual activity."

MUSICAL NOTES

By CAHN

It isn't news that the coming opera season will be one of the grandest ever to be held in this city. Advance notices tell us that it will not only be more extravagantly and luxuriously produced, but will be greatly superior in artistic performance than in former years.

But it would be news if you and I and other ordinary folks could purchase tickets to these operas.

You see, it's rather difficult to wax enthusiastic over the operas year after year and yet to be unable to purchase tickets. We know that those people who subscribe to the Opera Association are entitled to their season tickets and a first choice. But at this stage of opera production, some means should have been devised whereby you and I might purchase tickets to these operas.

We might buy standing room, but did you ever stand up for a performance of, let us say "Tristan?" We did, and admit that we were yawning after a couple of hours of this vigil. But we'll be standing again and maybe this year we'll get enough material to write a book which we might call "Flat-feet at the Opera."

One of our most outstanding music majors, Richard Bailey, has just been appointed organist of the Chinese Church of San Francisco. It was Bailey who won recognition last semester with his excellent suite for string orchestra. It is our opinion that this work is the finest composition ever written by any State student.

Earn As They Learn

Madison, Wis. — (ACP)—Journalism students at the University of Wisconsin go professional before they graduate — especially those enrolled in the feature writing course.

With a record of 85 articles sold during the past school year—equivalent to $1,500 in returns—these writers have eclipsed former "tops" of 50 in one year. In 1929 students received checks of $100 and more, but now checks average $10 to $15.

Visiting

"Already we have a great many freshmen students who are quite unfitted for college work. They are here, in many cases, merely because it seems to be the thing to do and because, without thought, they go where their friends are going." Dean J. B. Johnston, of the arts college at the University of Minnesota, doesn't know whether it's the high school or the student.

STUDENT IN TURBULENT SPAIN SENDS PLEA FOR ADMISSION TO SAN FRANCISCO STATE

Editor's Note: The following letter was written by a native born Californian who is now residing in Spain. The "Golden Gater" feels that it is of particular interest, inasmuch as it is a request for entrance to the college. The name of the writer has been deleted.

Calle Pizarro No. 2
Salamanca, Spain,
September 7, 1936.

My dear Miss Crumpton:

Your address has been sent to me by Miss Dorothea Shaeffer, my loved teacher of Independence School, from where I graduated. They were sent to me some months ago, advising me to write to you as soon as possible, but as you may see that I write from Spain, which is in the present having a great great civil war, which fortunately has still left me on land until this day.

. . . Miss Crumpton, I beg of you to hear my pleadings, helping me all you can, as it means my way to earn a living in my native country, where I have put all my thoughts to love, live and die.

I was born in Watsonville, Calif. and graduated in the Independence Grammar School, entering Hayward High School, but in my first year, before having examinations, I was forced to accompany mother to come to Spain as the doctor's advice that the change of climate would restore her health.

. . . Here, as my only ambition always has been to become a teacher, I entered high school or called here Bachiller or Institute de Segunda Ensenanza.

The High School here is of 6 years, that is 6 courses, including 34 subjects, and before a person begins to study the Bachiller he has to do some examinations and if he has passed he begins to study the 1st year.

I must state now that what I wish is (if you could kindly help me) to return to California and be able to go there directly to the State Teacher's College . . .

I also must state that I am studying 1st year of the teacher's college from here from Salamanca (Editor's note: Salamanca is one of the oldest and best known of European colleges).

I have the diploma at home and as it is quite large I do not mail it to you because I'm afraid that with the actual situation in Spain, probably it would get lost.

Yours very sincerely,

TYPES OF CAMPUS COEDS

To categorize the different types of co-eds on the average college campus in anything but the "trite and true" fashion is a difficult task. When the job is done as well as a writer in the Springfield College Student did it, it deserves to be quoted:

"First, there is the 'athletic type,' well developed in a muscular manner; shoots a good game of golf; knows the difference between a fullback and a centerfielder; knows that 'Muscle Shoals' is a sound and not a grappler. She is the girl who will beat you at tennis; so be careful whom you ask to play a couple of sets; she may be the next Helen Wills Moody.

"If you are fond of dancing, no doubt you will run across the 'little lump of sugar type.' This type looks like something out of Heaven, but, in truth just dropped out of Chicopee. She's all right for dancing, but when she opens her mouth a wad of gum as big as her fist is likely to fall out.

"The 'Impression Girl' wants to discuss the new rocket flight; talks about the moon in the sky but thinks it's just for eclipses; she's read Milton, Shakespeare, and all of the great Masters. Her father and President Roosevelt were responsible for the upward trend, if there is such a thing as recovery. At the end of the first half hour you'd like to impress upon her that you are fed up with her idle prattle and wished you had stayed home to study.

"Next comes the favorite 'clinging vine'. She's worse than poison ivy, mumps, and whooping cough at the same time. Just a bundle of nerves, awfully excited, scared of mice; looks at you like a half-starved, love-sick calf. She thinks the greater powers have sent a Springfield man to her—so beware of her clutches.

"Then there is the 'gimme gimme' type. She spends most of her time smoking cigarettes, eating nut caramel, and reading 'Modern Romance.' Everything that her fair eye catches she wants. Nothing interests her except a worldly possession of trinkets given to her by masculine admirers with hearts as 'weak as water.' With that little itsy, bitsy, baby lingo, she is apt to acquire quite a collection.

"Of course, you probably will meet someone, somewhere, sometime, who will be the ideal girl. The girl who could be brought home to mother, observed by dad, and okayed by Junior. If you haven't much money she would just as soon walk as ride the trolley. She knows you should study five nights a week and spend the other two with her (until twelve). She is interested in your work; has a sense of humor, a keen personality; not bad on the blinkers. Put them all together and you have one swell girl."

"Craig's Wife" Reviewed

By MAX R. WILLIAMSON

Marking the recent trend toward true reproduction of the legitimate drama in the films, the cinematized version of George Kelley's play "Craig's Wife," playing at a down town theatre, is significant in the fact that not only was the original plot undistorted by Hollywood technique, but was improved upon in filming.

Rosalind Russell in the part of the cold, grasping woman, who married for a home rather than love and whose entire life was wrapped up in her immaculate house, was cast perfectly for the part of the wife of Craig, who was an easy-going, unsuspecting money doling husband until his eyes were opened by a series of circumstances. The part was played by John Boles.

The cinema, having the mechanical means to present intricate and varied scenes and not limited to the confines of stage setting as is the legitimate theatre, in spite of the delusions of Eugene O'Neill, has an advantage, which until recently has not been utilized. The lines of the screen version of the play are the same, except in a few unusual circumstances, as those of the original drama; thus, the Kelley technique has not been lost.

Tolerance

(By Associated Collegiate Press)

"In public affairs, as in private dealings, the inescapable essential to civilized living is respect for the opinions and sensibilities of others. If it is not dominant in the domestic affairs of a people it will be absent from their international relations, and peace and prosperity will suffer." Dr. Harold W. Dodds, president of Princeton University, offers all Americans a timely suggestion.

Salinas Game Cancelled By J. C. Coaches

Golden Tide Receives Two Weeks Rest For Santa Barbara Contest

Salinas Junior College last week cancelled the game with State, originally scheduled for next Friday at Salinas.

According to word received from Salinas officials the game does not appear to suit their convenience, although the reason was not quite clear.

One letter stated that Salinas had a contest scheduled with San Jose State on the date State expected to play. A second letter was to the effect that Salinas wanted to play in its own conference and hadn't time for games with independents.

Whether the lettuce strike has anything to do with the dropping of the contest, or whether Salinas simply lacked the funds necessary to bring the Gaters to their orchard has not been ascertained.

At any rate the Gater varsity will have two weeks' rest between the Chico and Santa Barbara engagements.

Holding the spotlight for next week-end will be the State freshman eleven, which will meet the San Francisco Boys' Club at Roberts' Stadium, Friday night, October 30.

This game will mark the initial appearance of the "forgotten men" who rarely see action in varsity contests. It will be played by the varsity-men-to-come.

Boxing To Be Featured By Block S

That the annual Block "S" smoker will feature a series of boxing matches was announced last Wednesday by that organization. There will be at least ten boxing matches and three or more exhibitions by "Grunt and groan" artists.

Dick Hurst, present holder of the heavyweight title, will take to the "squared circle" with an opponent who has not as yet been named, but who, it is assured, will be capable of making a real match out of the fray. The height of the festivities will be a promising "battle royal" between "Monk" Delma and Kenny Wilkes. They have been paired off before, and if their match is half as lively as their previous encounters, it will prove to be by far the top spot of the program.

Among the pugilists who will take to the ring are Eddie Booker, George Paiva and "Tiny" Cervelli, all of whom were featured in the smoker last year. Other performers who promise to rock the college gymnasium, are: Al Cartwright, Barney DeBishop, "Sonny" Newton, and George Elzarian. The finalists from Mr. Farmer's boxing class will also compete in the boxing matches.

Basketball Starts Soon

About fifty teams are expected to enter in the men's intramural basketball tournament which is about to get under way. The teams will be selected from the men's physical education classes, each class choosing about five or six teams.

The instructors in the various physical education classes have chosen a manager for each of the various teams that that class will enter and the manager will be responsible for having his team entered and having a name for the team.

These games are expected to begin early in November and will be played at noontime at the Salvation Army and the Gymnasium. They will be played in a different manner than the football games, inasmuch as in the football tournament the teams that were eliminated had only one chance to play, and in this tournament, all teams will play all the other teams in a round-robin style. Thus even the losing teams will have a chance to play a number of games. In case there are too many teams entered the games will be played by sections. The winners of one section playing the winners of the others.

These games will probably last for a longer time than the football tournament did, not only because of the numerous teams, but because there are more games to play. In the system under which this tournament will be held, the players will get more enjoyment out of being in the tournament, as they will be in more games.

A LETTER FROM CHICO

(Ed. Note—The following is an excerpt from the advertising letter received by publicity director Harold Martin from Chico State's publicity bureau.)

When the Wildcats and Staters from San Francisco clash in Oroville this year it will be the first of a series of out of town games for the Wildcats. One of these games will be played each year to advertise the local college throughout the Sacramento Valley.

In our advertising campaign we try to pick a team that will give us a good game but that Chico will win—thus creating a good impression for Chico.

Tuggey Head Of Play Day

In correcting the announcement that Virginia Kyriaze would be in charge of the W. A. A. Play Day for high school girls, it was announced last Wednesday that the person in charge of the program would be Blanche Tuggey.

The committee chairmen for the program were announced as: Invitations, Evelyn Geinzer; luncheon, Berta and Frances Bolander; officials and hostesses, Dorothy Oswill; luncheon program, Evelyn Stadelman; decorations, Eldris Burrows; introductory period, Shirley Ferman; registration, Louise Vallerino, and equipment, Frances Weinberger.

It was also announced that the women's doubles in the W. A. A. tournament are to start tomorrow morning at the Richmond Park Playgrounds. The women's singles matches were concluded last Sunday at the same park, being won by Catherine True.

The teams that have already signed up for the tournament are: Babbete Lau, Edna Mae Hall, Helen Smith, Mary Bilaufer, Bobbe Sandeen, Catherine True, Helen Shinn and Ida Fertig. The winning team of last year, composed of Catherine True and Virginia Kleinert, will not defend their title due to the dropping from school of Miss Kleinert. Miss True has paired off with Bobbe Sandeen for this year's contest. All those who are interested in entering the tourney are urged by Virginia Kyriaze, the president, to sign up in the women's gym as soon as possible.

Tennis Title Won by True

By defeating Shirley Ferman, a stubborn opponent, Catherine True won, for the second successive time, the State women's single tennis championship.

The contest, held at the Richmond Playground court last Sunday, was a hard-fought, two-hour battle, with Miss True's experience winning the match. Miss True, the defending champion, lost the first three of the ten games in the opening set, but won six out of the next seven, giving her a decided advantage. In the second set, Miss True dropped the opening game, but came through to win the next six.

Since entering State, the 19-year-old, 5 foot seven, 126 pound sophomore, has won four championships. Among the numerous titles she holds are the women's doubles and the mixed doubles. She is a product of the Golden Gate Park, and for the last seven years, has been under the competent eye of George Englefield.

In 1934 and 1935 the State champion won the Golden Gate Park women's singles title in the junior division, having defeated Marcella O'Conner for both titles. Playing in the Pacific Coast junior division two years ago, she was ranged thirteenth. Being only a sophomore, she will have two chances to defend her title, and has already announced her intention to enter the State tournament next year.

The tournament, which was sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association, attracted over forty entrants during the three weeks of play. During the entire tournament, Miss True did not drop a single set, winning her hardest game from Miss Ferman.

SPORT SHANTS

By KEN JOHNSON

Once in a while we get around to our mail box and have the nerve to open up the mail. Most of the letters are circulars about this an' that, but sometimes some hardy souls take enough interest in this column to criticize or praise. So picking out a couple, one giving us the works and the other not so tough to take.

Sports Editor, Golden Gater (Maybe they mean Tom Thorpe):

The Golden Gater makes me sick. Especially the sports page. All you ever have is repetition about the same things and after they are about a week old. The letter that Ken Johnson write to Farmer and Harden was all mixed up and seemed awful amateurish. Why don't you stick to one policy and really find out what is wrong with the football team? The sports page this year is terrible when you compare it with last year's paper.

A Disgusted Senior.

Okay disgusted senior, but we're doing our best. Here's another one:

Sports Editor, Golden Gater:

I don't want to be a "wolf," as you so ably call the students that don't appreciate the efforts of the football team. But it's terrible that a team could beat S. F. J. C. and then lose to a team like Miramonte who had two fast men. It seems that the team is doing the best that they can under the instruction they are getting. Why can't we have as good a team as Miramonte? Do they buy their football players?

A Wolf.

We don't know Rollo, you tell us. If those letters were an indication of the kind of spirit that all of you have, it is a bad state of affairs for State. Here's one that warms our heart.

Editor Sports Page, Friday Edition.

The editorial that you wrote in the form of a letter was swell and it is about time somebody wrote about the people we have around here. Why don't you print more pictures and some that aren't a week old?

A. C.

Now can you guess how your brother students feel?

Golden Tide Out to Whip Chico State

Wildcats Claim State To Be Push-Over Staters Out For Win

North goes the Golden Tide to battle the Chico State eleven tonight at Oroville. The Gaters, of course, are just going up to the valley city for the ride. Backed by an inspired Publicity Director, the Wildcats are a cinch to mop up State—on paper. Chico beat the Gaters last season by a score of 24 to 0—a fact which seems to obsess the Chico P. D. Strangely enough, San Francisco State was drubbed by S. F. J. C. last season by a still larger score than that of the Chico game but came back this season to decision the Rams 2 to 0. This all adds up to the one phychological fact that give an underdog one kick too many and he will fasten his snappers in somebody's pants. Tonight Chico is wearing the pants.

Down in the bowels of Frederic Burk school is the den of the Golden Gaters. Sometimes the Gaters return here wounded and bloody from a fight with some school that has proven just a little bit stronger than they. Sometimes they return triumphant, licking their chops after a stirring victory over a highly touted rival. All this week, however, strange sounds have been issuing from that gloomy abyss. Sounds that bode no good for a cocky Chico football team; sound that will echo in the ears of the Wildcats and send them scrambling back to Chico fences, there to yowl dismally at the moon. For these sounds are the unholy laughter that rings in the locker room and is produced by the team that will face Chico tonight. Their laughter is inspired by the letter, excerpts of which are boxed on this page, which hangs conspicuously on the locker room bulletin board.

There is no doubt that Chico is a team to beat. State's running attack will have to hammer against a line averaging around the 200 pound mark. Leslie Murphy, Wildcat center, weighs 253 pounds, and several other linesmen pack almost as much beef. Leslie Kreigh, who holds down the right guard position and is the Chico field general, is being groomed by Coach Art Acker for a place on the all-conference team this year. Clarence Pentico, wingman, has been rated by old Amos Stagg as one of the best ends in the Far Western Conference in 1935.

A wounded Gater will crawl on the Oroville field tonight, but crippled football teams, like crippled animals, will fight with twice the fury and are dangerous until the final gun ends the game.

"When the Wildcats and Staters . . . clash in Oroville it will be the first of a series of out-of-town games." . . . . These quotes are taken from a letter sent to Harold Martin from the Chico State Publicity Manager. The gist of the entire letter simmers down to this revealing sentiment if analyzed like a diplomat's correspondence: IN OUR (CHICO'S) ADVERTISING CAMPAIGN, WE TRY TO PICK A TEAM THAT WILL GIVE US A GOOD GAME, BUT ONE THAT CHICO WILL WIN. THIS CREATES A GOOD IMPRESSION FOR CHICO. . . . Hell hath no fury like a Gater scorned.

MRS. DORRIS LECTURES ON TRIP IN RUSSIA TO SPHINX CLUB MEMBERS

Vivid Emotions Expressed by Russian People Concerning the Present Day Situation of Government and Living Conditions

"Fear, terror, and dread, constituted the emotions expressed by the people of Russia when I visited there in 1929," stated Mrs. Anna Dorris in her lecture on "Recent Trends in Russia," which she presented at the last meeting of the Sphinx Club. She went on to say, "Moscow was typified by drabness which expressed itself in lack of color, not only in the dress of the people, but also in the color tones of the futuristic buildings which were under construction.

"The most hopeful thing about the whole situation was the fact that Stalin was the first one to say, 'This method is wrong, we thought it would work—it did not, so we will change'." Mrs. Dorris continued, "I left Russia saying, 'I see great hope, they will reach a greater goal. But conditions at the present time are deplorable in some rural areas.'

"When I returned this year I found a spirit of greater happiness had replaced the former unrest. The people were brilliantly dressed, huge magnificent hotels, public buildings and fine new apartment houses for the working men were under construction on both sides of the broad sidewalks, many large parks were being established in the main cities, in which every kind of instruction was being offered to both young and old."

At the next meeting of the Sphinx Club a debate between four students on the topic, "Motion pictures have a pernicious effect on young morals," will be presented.

Alpha Gammas Plan Hallowe'en Social

Next on the list of social events for Alpha Phi Gamma is a Costume Hallowe'en Party to be given at Sigmund Stern Grove on October 29th, according to word from officers of the fraternity. Three pledges of the organization, Dorothy Jean White, Alice Marsten, and Bill Rose are in charge of the party, which is for club members and guests only. Dr. Leonard Ascher will act as sponsor for the fraternity in the absence of Mr. Gibson.

EXPOSED!

May 1, 1937, will be the delivery date of the 1937 Franciscan.

BIB'N TUCKER READY AS BALL APPROACHES

At the last meeting of Bib'n Tucker, definite plans were formulated for the club presentation of the coming Chickens' Ball.

Peggy Clifford, Betty DeVoe, Dorothy Laville and Victoria Regier were appointed by the club to sponsor the program. According to Victoria Regier, chairman of the committee, something entirely new and different will be presented, as is the tradition of the club.

Lidlifter

Lidlifter Editor:

In answer to the criticism published last Friday in the Gater concerning the music at the football games: We are sorry that a brother musician has publicly denounced the efforts of the pep band. Consider this: The band played outdoors; and the personnel was never the same because of outside jobs. But the boys tried, and they turned out; that's the important thing. What would a coach say if a player condemned the efforts of his teammates?

To refute the charge that we can raise a fifty piece band in ten minutes, we offer our critic ten days to do the same. Will he give this band's services to the Federation and pledge that it will turn out for all the games?

We believe there are better ways to put school spirit into the Federation, of which our critic is a member, than by calling the efforts of some of the best players in the school "LOUSY."

G. H. SMITH,
President of the Music Federation.

Symposium on Politics Set for Friday Oct. 30

With the approval of the Executive Board a political symposium has been tentatively scheduled for October 30th, at which time representatives of the major parties will give State students their platforms. "This affair promises to be unusual in that it will be the first time that the College has ever taken an interest in offering State students the various aspects of the platforms of the different parties," stated Richard Nelson, Club Federation president.

The political parties who will be invited to deliver the discussions are as follows: Republican, Democratic, Socialist and Communist.

Also of importance is that classes may be dismissed in order that the students may avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing the speakers; however, nothing definite has been reached as yet.

"The chapter of the American Student Union at State was responsible for the idea," continued Nelson, "but it was too big a responsibility for one organization, so it had to be turned over to the Federation of Clubs."

The symposium is set for 11:00 a. m. in the Women's Gym and, according to Nelson, plans are being considered to have a seating arrangement such that it will accommodate those attending the affair.

VARSITY THEATER MATINEE PERFORMANCE THIS NOON

Varsity Theatre's first matinee performance will be presented at noon today in Anderson Hall 210, was the announcement of Erwin Bischoff, chairman of the theatre.

The student films which were presented at the evening performance for 25 cents will now be available for only 10 cents. These include Campus Reels second edition, and the "1936 State Varsity."

Also included on the program will be an animated cartoon and a travelogue, in addition to a preview of Campus Reels (third edition).

"Craig's Wife" For Rainbow Girls

Changing their plans for a theater party planned last meeting Sigma Rho Gamma will see "Craig's Wife," playing at the Orpheum, on Saturday, October 24.

At the same meeting, held Monday, October 19th, a discussion of plans for the "Chickens' Ball" was carried on. Plans for contributions to that night are being taken care of by a committee, headed by Lillian Johnson.

Plans for the charity project for the Italian Community Center children, under the chairmanship of Harriet Murry, are going ahead rapidly. The day is to be a trip to the Golden Gate Park Zoo. Each member has charge of one child. In case of bad weather, the children will be taken to one of the "Christmas Plays for Children." The big day is December 12th.

ASU MEMBERS PREPARE FIRST SOCIAL FUNCTION

"Onward to Purity Cove" is the battleery of the members of the American Student Union in preparation of its first social function of the semester. They will gather this evening for a weenie roast.

Charles Rich announced that the members will leave the College at 5:00 p. m. this evening and go to Purity Cove, which is near Land's End.

Phi Lambdas Will Pledge

Plans are well under way for a Hell Day for the 27 girls planning on membership in Phi Lambda Chi, October 30 is the date set for the ritual by Harriet White, president of the organization.

Grace Bertelson and Edith White have been selected as co-chairmen of the Formal Tea to be given in honor of the Pledges on November 22.

To be pledged by this group one must be a Sophomore, have a C average, be outstanding in activity work, and be approved by the club members. The following girls have been chosen for membership: Jane Callum, Elaine Hoxie, Eleanor Burchell, Merguerite Bellis, Kay McNally, Peggy Simpson, Adele Hopper, Lois Arentz, Berta Bolander, Dawn Wilson, Jane Dean, Lois Davidson, Marian B. Smith, Janice Sharp, Mary Godfrey, Kay Baily, Avis Avery, Helen Brookhurst, Juanita Krumlinde, Hazel Johnson, Vernell Lane, Barbara Thomas, Marjorie Alexander, Barbara Smith, Jane Bowers, Freda Christiansen and Alice Dawson.
